Memorial of Our Lady of Mount Carmel July 16, 2009

Dear Friend of Jesus King of All Nations,

“Whoever dies clothed in this habit shall be saved.” That’s what Our Lady of Mount Carmel said to St. Simon Stock, Carmelite Superior General, in 1251.

By saying, “this habit,” Our Lady meant the brown woolen scapular clothing of the Carmelite Order. Our Lady herself appeared to St. Simon Stock accompanied by a multitude of angels and held this scapular in her hand. Her promise has been extended to all those enrolled in the Brown Scapular. Obviously, simply wearing this Scapular does not save us, as if by magic. Jesus saves us through living our total consecration to Him. The Brown Scapular is a sign of our consecration.

Scapular to St. Simon Stock.

Pope John Paul II Wore the Brown Scapular

Pope John Paul II sent a letter to the Carmelite order to mark the 750th anniversary of their reception of the Brown Scapular. He wrote, “I have learned that the Carmelite order wishes to express its filial love to its Patroness invoked as the Flower of Carmel, Mother and Guide in the Path to Holiness.” This Marian devotion, expressed “in the humble sign of the Scapular, consists in the consecration to her Immaculate Heart,” he stressed.

On her Feast Day, he said, “Even I, from my youngest days, have worn around my neck the Scapular of Our Lady and I take refuge with trust under the mantle of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of Jesus.” He added, “I hope the Scapular will be for everyone, especially the faithful who wear it, a help and defense in times of danger, a seal of peace and a sign of Mary’s care.”

Brown Scapulars consist of two small squares of woolen cloth joined by strings and worn around the neck. (See the photo below). The original, large scapulars worn by the Carmelites were work habits that came to symbolize the Cross and yoke of Christ.

Brown Scapular of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel

Almost six centuries after Our Lady appeared to St. Simon Stock, she appeared to Sister Lucia, Blessed Jacinta and Blessed Francisco on October 13, 1917 in the last vision at Fatima. Our Lady appeared as Our Lady of Mount Carmel with the Brown Scapular hanging from her right hand in the same way as it was held out for St. Simon Stock.

Sister Lucia said, “The Rosary and the Scapular of Our Lady of Mount Carmel are inseparable and the wearing of the Brown Scapular is the sign of our consecration.” When we wear the Brown Scapular, we are giving a sign of our consecration to Jesus through Mary by which we dedicate ourselves entirely to Jesus under her protection and imitate her virtues. This was Pope John Paul II’s personal spirituality. The motto of his papacy was Totus Tuus – Totally Yours.

Jesus King of All Nations revealed a special Consecration to Himself through Our Lady Mediatrix of All Grace. He also revealed an image of Himself on the Cross as the Mediator of our salvation with Our Lady as Mediatrix of All Grace standing at the foot of the Cross. She is clothed with the Brown Scapular that encircles the world. (See the image at right).

The Consecration to Jesus King

Jesus King said, “My Most Holy Mother is preparing the great triumph. The triumph of her Immaculate Heart ushers in the Reign of My Love and Mercy.” You can help to bring this Triumph by making the Consecration revealed by Jesus King of All Nations and by wearing the Brown Scapular in imitation of Our Lady’s consecration.

Mary’s consecration to God was manifested by her total “Yes” to Him. She said, “I am the handmaid of the Lord. Let it be done to me according to your word.” (Lk.1:38). We should imitate her, make our own Consecration to Jesus King of All Nations and wear the Brown Scapular.

Our Lady obtained from Jesus King the Consecration that He revealed. She said, “Know that I have obtained this prayer for my children from the Heart of my Divine Son.” This Consecration is contained below. Please make or renew this Consecration and wear the Brown Scapular.

Grandmother’s Consecration

Guardian Karen Taylor reported that she gratefully received the Visitation Image of Jesus King of All Nations shortly after her first grandchild was born. She said, “It gave me the opportunity to consecrate him to Jesus King of All Nations. Thank you and May God bless you, your staff and your mission!” Please call us for more information on hosting the Visitation Image.

In the summer, many of our supporters take well-deserved vacations. As a result, our donations fall to their lowest level and we barely make it through the summer. Your extra help during this time would be greatly appreciated.

Please pray for our apostolate, make or renew your Consecration, wear the Brown Scapular, and send us your donation today! We rely solely on your help to spread this Devotion and Consecration throughout the world and to co-ordinate the Visitations of the Image of Jesus King of All Nations.

Another supporter from Malaysia wrote me and said, “I have enclosed a donation to help you to spread the Devotion far and wide. I always look forward to reading your newsletters. May Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of All Nations continue to shower His graces on all those involved in this effort of evangelization that you have taken upon yourselves.”

I am very thankful for your prayers and your support. May God bless you for your generosity! Our benefactors receive the following spiritual benefits from our apostolate: remembrance of your intentions in our daily perpetual novena to Jesus King of All Nations; our weekly Holy Hour before the Blessed Sacrament and our special monthly Masses. Please help us. May God bless you for your generous support! I am very grateful!

Sincerely in Christ,

Dan Lynch
